

JULY 2016 £4.99

THE WORLD OF INTERIORS

IVY LEAGUE

Looking for a light with evergreen appeal? Take a leaf out of our book and opt for a sophisticated wall-mounted fixture to up your style credentials. Selecting a team of lamps, lanterns and girandoles, both modern and majestic, the matchless Miranda Sinclair helps you pick out the path to glory. Photography: Bill Batten

Opposite: 1 Light-antique-brass 'Ibex 3' sconce, £2,142, Remains Lighting. 2 Italian silver-plate beaded-glass sconce, c1930, £1,850 for the pair, Guinevere. 3 'Baroness' sconce, £680, Paolo Moschino for Nicholas Haslam. 4 Large bronze Empire-style wall light with two branches, 19th-century (sold with reproduction), £6,800 for the pair, Sibyl Colefax & John Fowler Antiques. 5 Medium 'Hyde' wall lantern, £1,740, Jamb. 6 Short two-branch 'Oak Branch', £444, Richard Taylor Designs. 7 'George III' girandole, £1,611, Vaughan. This page: 1 Extendable copper wall lamp, £240, Baileys. 2 'Alfies', £651, Julian Chichester. 3 Antique-brass 'Tom' swing-arm with black shade, £618, Hector Finch. 4 Polished-copper 'School', by Davey Lighting, £399, Original BTC. 5 'Aden', £118, Tinsmiths. 6 'Gilbert' swing-arm, £783, Balineum. All prices include VAT. For suppliers' details see Address Book >